

INVENTORY DEPOT

PROBLEM

Hangrid began working with Inventory Depot when they needed a storage facility that was located near one of their customers.

SOLUTION

Inventory Depot is now storing Hangrid's material and releasing it to the customer at their request.

TESTIMONIAL

"Excellent results. We have a great working relationship with Inventory Depot and they provide excellent customer service."

WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING

PROBLEM

Shortage of internal warehouse space for distribution of products in the Fiber optic cable industry.

SOLUTION

Inventory Depot provides IMG LLC with third party warehousing and on demand dispatches to customers. IMG LLC does not have sufficient space to manage the volume of products that we distribute. Using Inventory Depot has made it possible for them to grow their business without having to expand their facility.

TESTIMONIAL

"Competitive pricing, great responsiveness to inquiries, and on-time dispatch as requested, every time!"

- IMG LLC

PROBLEM

Grow Materials needed a storage solution while expanding into new markets, and were referred to Inventory Depot by other happy customers.

SOLUTION

In addition to storing Grow Material's products, Inventory Depot has also allowed their team to be on-site for inspections.

TESTIMONIAL

"Inventory Depot has been a reliable storage partner for us for more than 3 years and they have been great to work with. We know we can count on their support and their customer service is excellent!"

PROBLEM

Shortage of internal warehouse space for distribution of products in the adhesives & polymers industry.

SOLUTION

Inventory Depot provides Franklin International with third party warehousing and on demand dispatches to customers. Franklin International does not have sufficient space to manage the volume of products that we distribute. Using Inventory Depot has made it possible for them to grow their business without having to expand their facility.

TESTIMONIAL

"The fact that we've worked with them that long definitely says something. They're always easy to work and they're very fast at order and inbound processing. We trust them completely with our products and they're one of the few logistics companies that will cross dock for us. Their shipping and inventory accuracy has been at 100% at least for the last couple of years and probably longer. Their staff is friendly and helpful and they've gone above and beyond for us in certain situations and at no additional charge."
